Description:

The Silk Teak with Olive Versailles Parquet Panels are crafted from premium European oak, offering a captivating combination of rich wood tones and elegant olive highlights. The detailed parquet design brings texture and depth to your space, making it ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Finished with a triple layer of protective coatings, including Hard Wax Oil Matt, these panels provide a natural, matte luster that enhances the wood's grain while ensuring maximum resistance to daily wear. Each panel is a masterpiece, transforming any room into a statement of luxury and sophistication.
